CAMPING

BRINGING FUN AND LEARNING TOGETHER

Family Vacations

Vacations are an opportunity to build a sense of family togetherness without the pressures of everyday life. Where the family goes and how long the stay are not important, the best vacations are planned around the interests and developmental levels of the children.

When planning a trip with young children, remember that they need and like routines. Try to keep naptime, mealtimes and bedtimes as close to the normal routine as possible. It also helps when the itinerary is discussed so that the kids know what to expect.

Families traveling with young children should consider their age and interests. Are they shy, have short attention spans, need to move around, talkative? Do they enjoy physical activity, quiet times, arts and crafts, exploring? When traveling with young children create a survival kit including books, games, healthy snacks, crayons, markers, paper, children's music, etc.

By pre-planning your vacation, ensuring some routine, yet allowing for flexibility, everyone in your family can enjoy the adventure!
